ABOUT COLLEGE

Elphinstone College was established in 1834, it is one of the oldest colleges of the Mumbai. It played a major role in shaping and developing the educational landscape of the city. It also played a pivotal role in the inception of University of Mumbai. Now it is one of the constituent colleges of Dr. Homi Bhabha State University, a newly formed first state cluster university by Govt. of Maharashtra. The College enjoys a sea of Notable Alumnus. This includes the likes of Revolutionaries such as B. R. Ambedkar, Bal Gangadhar Tilak, Virchand Gandhi, Badruddin Tyabji, Pherozeshah Mehta, Nanabhai Haridas, Kashinath Trimbak Telang and Jamsetji Tata and teachers include Dadabhai Naoroji. It played a key role in the spread of education in Mumbai.

The college has an enviable location, which is also historically significant. The building of the College with its gothic architecture, has been classified as a grade 1 Heritage structure. It has recently been restored by the Kala Ghoda Association and has regained its luminous look. It stands out like a pearl as night falls. The College was awarded the Asia-Pacific Heritage Award for Culture Heritage Conservation, by UNESCO in 2004.
